Milgard Named One of Fifty Most Engaged Workplaces for 2011

Tacoma WA (Feb. 29, 2012) – Achievers, the fastest growing global employee rewards and social recognition company, has announced that Milgard was named one of the 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ in 2011.

This award recognizes top employers that have displayed leadership and innovation in building a workplace environment that cultivates employee engagement. Winners were selected by a judging panel that evaluated companies in eight key areas, including leadership, communication, culture, rewards and recognition, professional and personal growth, vision and values, accountability and performance, and corporate social responsibility.

Barb Motley, Director of Human Resources for Milgard states, “Milgard has always put a priority on its people. We have a culture of leadership, motivation and team building. We want our people to grow and succeed...and in turn, the company grows and succeeds.”
