Milgard Windows & Doors Recognized as a Most Engaged Workplace for 2013

TACOMA, Wash. (January 14, 2014) – Achievers today announced Milgard Windows & Doors as one of the Achievers 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ in the United States. This annual award recognizes top employers that display leadership and innovation in engaging their workplaces.

“The Achievers 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ understand that employee engagement is not just a buzz word, but that engaged employees provide businesses with a unique competitive advantage. Companies that focus on employee success have better engagement and alignment with business objectives and company values,” said Achievers CEO, Patrick D. Quirk. “These companies serve as role models for other businesses to engage their own employees and build success.”

The Achievers 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ Awards panel of judges evaluated each applicant based on the Eight Elements of Employee Engagement™: Communication, Leadership, Culture, Rewards & Recognition, Professional & Personal Growth, Accountability & Performance, Vision & Values and Corporate Social Responsibility.

The panel of 14 judges included various academics and thought leaders on employee engagement, and included representation from organizations such as the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), Human Resources Professionals Association (HRPA), and Human Capital Institute (HCI) and Northern California HR Association.

“We are honored and think it validates the Milgard culture that we have been recognized for a third time.” says Cory Hall, vice president of human resources at Milgard. “Our strategy has always been centered on the fact that people make the ultimate difference in producing superior results and providing unmatched service to our customers. When we have organizational clarity around our goals combined with the best players, we have a highly successful business.”

Milgard will be honored alongside other recipients of the Achievers 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ Award at the awards gala on April 2, 2014 in San Francisco, California. This is the third time Milgard has won the award.
